ADMINISTRATION

Without the help of our extremely dedicated administration, we would not have had the successful year we had.

Principal, Harry J. Price did an excellent job running the student body with much discipline.

Vice Principals, Ms. King and Ms. Fore also added to the successful year here at Alameda High School.

Thank you all! We could not have made it without you.

Independence and responsibility is the emphasis on this years Trainable Mentally Retarded program. They aim to improve their skills in money management, speech and language, personal data, banking and reading as well as many others.

Blair Cassini-Hodgkin with the help of Arlene Goodwin has done an excellent job to prepare the TMR students to function as independently as possible.

We at A.H.S. are proud to be able to support and assist these students as much as possible.

The Fall Student Body Officers worked hard to life the spirits of a dying student body. President Adan Alonzo headed the policy committee. Vice President, Curt Leavitt, headed the assembly planning bringing us exciting assemblies. Financial Secretary, Diane Morris, dealt with our money, planned the budget and guided us through a financially stable year. Agnes Bonefacio, Recording Secretary, organized dances, car rally, and other functions. Our Publicity Officer, Eugene Corpuz, kept our Hornet's Buzz buzzing with information on school events. Thanks Eug!!! Chris Moore, Commissioner of Spirit, worked hard to unite our school and lift our spirits. Intramural Officer, Jeanette Vacca, organized and executed many noontime activities, including teams in; volleyball, indoor soccer, and many others. Representative to the School Board. Timothy Hartman, faithfully attended the bimonthly school board meetings, voicing the students thoughts and opinions on issues affecting them. Alright Porky!!!

Thanks to all the Student Body Officers for making this year a successful one!

Fall leadership gets things going!

For about 40 of Alameda High's elected and appointed students, involved in student government, first period was spent planning organizing and reviewing student body and class functions such as dances, student body card sales, soap sales, spirit week, assemblies, car rallies, noon time bands, and other school events to bring out participation in the student body. The class's main project was to bring alive school spirit in each member of the school, and to strengthen the pride of the HORNETS.

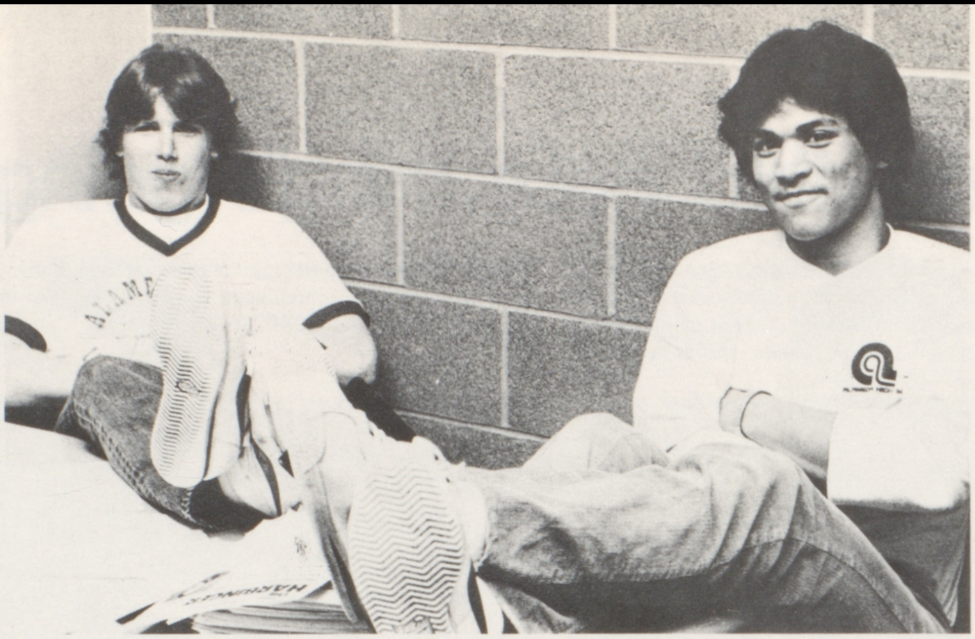
SPRING OFFICERS



Student Representative, Timothy Hartman and Publicity Officer, Eugene Corpuz.

Under the guidance of re-elected president, Adan Alanzo, the spring student body officers got off to a bang. Heading the policy committee, Adan, was concerned with the parking difficulty around school and the appearance of our campus. Vice President Curt Leavitt brought the student body to life with more exciting assemblies. New faces included Financial Secretary Cheri Weber, Commissioner of Spirit Debbie McCall, and Recording Secretary Debbie Alexander, who fulfilled their jobs to the fullest degree. Re-elected Eugene Corpuz, publicity officer, continued to keep our weekly Hornet's Buzz buzzing with info. Representative to the school board, Timothy Hartman, proved to be the best Rep. ever, voicing the students' opinions on matters of concern. It was in all ways a well organized year.

Busy working on activities to get the whole student body involved was the spring Leadership's goal. The thirty-five member class was headed by Speaker, Mark Canepa. Those who assisted him were Vice-Speaker, Trisha Andrews, and Sergeant-at-Arms, Mike Kelly. Committees such as: policy, assembly planning, finance, campus affairs, social activities and intramurals met each day to plan the exciting events such as: the Gumball Rally, Blood Drive, obtaining picnic benches at our dirt space and much more. Thanks to these hard working, dedicated people, AHS was made a more beautiful, spirited place!

FALL CHEERLEADING

The cheerleading and pom-pon girls of fall, 1982 again fulfilled thei obligations for school spirit. They continued the tradition of arousing th crowd as well as urging on the team. Cheering and screaming at each an every Hornet football game, the squads inspired the crowds who in turn inspired the teams on to a successful season.

Competing in cheerleading and pom-pon routines during the past summer, they both were honored with awards. The cheerleaders won a spiri stick and the pom-pon girls won a unity award as well as a superior trophy. Together they won 3rd place at the All-Star game.

These girls added to the continuing success of the Hornets. They al deserve a hand for their hard work and dedication.

The rowdiness of the girls not only led the Varsity Basketball Team to the victories against Encinal High, but also to a third place title going into the A.C.A.L. play-offs.

Despite this year being the first time for many girls on the varsity line, they worked hard which definitely showed in their spirit and unity at the spirit week assembly. Great job girls!!

SPIRIT WEEK GETS HORNETS ROWDY!!!!!!!!!

2▲

Although Spirit Week was hampered by mid-terms and Veterans Day Holiday, the spirit assembly built up a momentum never before felt among classes. Students joined together to cheer on their classes before, during and after the spirit skits, rallied by opposing classes chanting their graduation year.

The Class of '83 "Juniors Remember When . . ." traveled through time to capture first in hall decorating and winning overall as the most spirited class. The Class of '84, "Sophomores Go to the Superbowl" touchdowned for Second place, as the Class of '82, "Seniors Go Sierra" got snowed under for Third. The Class of '85, "Freshmen Go South Pacific", was left adrift, sailing into Fourth.

AHS students, and teachers alike, were so psyched for the "Big Game" that even the pouring rain didn't stop them from going to Thompson Field to cheer the mighty Hornets on to a 7-0 Victory over the Jets, ending Spirit Week on a high note.

REGIONAL OCCUPATIONAL PROGRAMS

2▲

The three Regional Occupational Programs offered to students at AHS are Bank Telling, Cosmetology, and Retail Merchandising. In the Bank Telling class, students learn the theory of banking and the daily operations and activities that take place in banks. The Cosmetology class, which is offered at Alameda Beauty College, teaches students the study of hair and skin care. The Retail Merchandising class prepares students for entry level jobs in the retail industry. Some of the areas explored in merchandising are; business management, advertising, buying, fashion design, etc. All of the ROP classes offered at AHS are year long courses and provide students with the opportunity to discover occupational fields of study.

MIDNIGHT MAGIC

The class of 1984 once again carried out the A.H.S. tradition of a fantastic, girl ask guy, Soph-Hop. The theme was Midnight Magic, and it brought in approximately $1,100.

This year's entertainment was in the form of a D.J. rather than a band. Rick Casanova kept the dance moving with popular hits playing the entire time.

Many sophomores worked hard on the dance, and their hard work really showed. The decorations were well done and really helped to create the mood.

Thanks, class of '84. We had a great time!!

SPRINGING INTO SPIRIT

1

A new tradition: Spring Spirit Week, was celebrated under the leadership of Commissioner of Spirit, Debbie McCall during the week of the AHS vs EHS basketball game in February. The 16th was Preppy day, the 17th was 60's day and the Gumball Rally, the 18th was Hawaiian day, and the 19th was class theme day. The class themes were: Freshmen Go Rodeo; Sophomore Get Physical; Juniors Go to Sleep; and the Seniors Have Class. All classes put on skits at the Spirit Assembly to create spirit for the basketball game. The results of Spring Spirit Week were: The Juniors waking up to second place, the Sophomores getting physical for third place, the Frosh wrangling fourth place, and for the first time, the Seniors, Class of 1982, took first place. A Grand Prize of $25.00 went to the Senior Class for winning.

It was a lot of fun, and a tradition that will surely go on over the years. Thanks to everyone who participated.

Spanish club is not only one of A.H.S.'s newest clubs, but also one of it's biggest. Their membership exceeds 50, with 8 officers. We can certainly attribute their success to a good leadership team.

The main cause of the club this year has been their trip to Mexico over Easter vacation. Members earned money to help finance their trip through fund raisers. The officers tried to organize fund raisers that would also be fun for those not planning to go on the trip to Mexico. A skate-a-thon, cake walk, and various bake sales have helped toward their goal.

The Spring Play for this year was "Charley's Aunt," by Brandon Thomas. In the 90 years since the play was first performed, it has remained popular with audiences everywhere.

The comedy's plot is complex: Jack and Charley, two college students, invite their sweethearts to their rooms to meet Charley's millionaire aunt from Brazil. When the aunt sends word that she will not be able to be there, the boys force a schoolmate, Lord Fancourt Babberley, to impersonate Charley's aunt. Babbs only makes matters worse as the unsuspecting girls hug and kiss him and men propose to him. The real aunt then shows up, after all, assuming a false name when she discovers that an impostor has taken her real name. At the end of all this confusion, it turns out that all but two of the characters are engaged to marry their true loves, and all ends well.

During the week of November 8-14, a group of Alameda High Hornets invaded the nations capitol in Washington D.C. This group of 13 students and one very nervous teacher spent their week attending seminars, lectures, and workshops. Until then the Juniors were ahead but the Seniors pulled through, winning the rally. Jeanette Vacca, Intramurals Officer, did a great job in organizing and MCing the events.

PENTATHALON

Headed by Athletic Department Director, Ms. Clymo, Alameda High participated in a more than enjoyable fund raiser. It consisted of 5 sports which were conducted for one hour. Each student got sponsors for their chosen sport. Much like a walk-a-thon the pentathalon was equally successful. Approximately 200 students participated in one of the following five categories; biking, swimming, jogging, skating and weight lifting. These were individual sports so one did as many laps or lifted as many weights as one could. The money that they raised went to the Athletic Department. Hopefully, A.H.S. will have this same type of spirit in the years to come.

LUNCHTIME IS THE ONLY TIME FOR A.H.S. STUDENTS TO . . . ?!?

AHS offers a variety of spots to choose for the students to eat and socialize. Park St. is a popular place to go, while others hang around the school, whether it's in the cafeteria, the hallways, or playing in the gym or greenspace. At assemblies, concerts, and football games, the AHS Bands played their music. The Stage Band specialized in a big band/jazz-rock sound, while the Advanced Band simply played all kinds of music, from classical to modern. The 1981-82 Intramural Program has grown to be a strong program at Alameda High School. This year Intramural has accomplished many new goals such as indoor soccer. Sports of the year consisted of badminton, volleyball, flag football, softball, and basketball. Champions on these sports were: The University of Fugg in volleyball; Russel Hay's Tomato Stompers in soccer; and Jeannine Lynch's Senior Wean's captured the basketball title. Spirit Leader Jenny Johnson

President Jeannine Lynch

Where Do We Go From Here?

Fun and money were the main objectives for the Senior Class of 1982. The Fall and Spring Class Officers did an excellent job providing the Seniors with fun and money making activities. President Jeannine Lynch led a pumpkin sale, a newspaper drive, and the class in spirit week when "Seniors Went to the Sierra's." She planned for all of the spring activities and produced the best Senior Banquet held in years, which was followed by a party for all the Seniors held at Cecilia Moore's house. Spring Pres. Stacey Lyons guided the Seniors in spirit week with the theme of "Senior Have Class." The Ball was held at the Hyatt Regency on May 22, with a bid selling for about $65. The Senior Picnic was June 1st at Shadow Cliffs.

The Class of 1982 was one full of talent, spirit and ambition. Good luck to each and every one of them.

GRADUATION!

Diane Mooris participated in the 1982 Junior Miss Competition, taking many honors. She won the North-Alameda County Junior Miss title and went on to place as 1st runner-up out of 66 girls for California Junior Miss!

The girls were judged in five areas. Diane place first in her division in scholastic achievement and talent, which she danced jazz for, as well as qualifying highly in the judges interview, poise and appearance, and physical fitness catagories. She won a total of $6,400 in scholarship money, and said the Junior Miss pageant was "a rewarding experience that I will never forget."

6. Steve's Harem!

Arriving at the Goodman's Hall in Jack London Square on January 9, 1982, semi-formal attired Seniors seated themselves at round tables and awaited dinner. A comfortable, friendly setting gave way to a relaxed atmosphere where conversation and laughter filled the air.

The menu, voted on by the Senior Class in early December, consisted of Tossed Green Salad with Thousand Island Dressing, generous slices of Prime Rib, Garden Peas, and sauted mushrooms, Baked Potatoes, and fresh rolls and butter, followed by Strawberry Sundaes, with the choice of milk, tea, or coffee.

After dinner, Seniors danced to the music of Benjamin Gold, Disc Jockey, until midnight, when the Banquet ended, and parties were just beginning.

Thanks to the efforts of Senior Banquet Committee, Jeannine Lynch, Cindy Trento, Jill Aragon, and Heidi Benson, the Class of 1982 had a most enjoyable evening, the first of the many senior events.

TOP TEN SENIORS

Alameda High school is accustomed to having superior athletic teams, active clubs and organizations, and popular social happenings. The one special group of students that doesn't get half as much recognition as it deserves is those students who have devoted their high school career to setting high goals for themselves, scholastically, and achieving them. Through perserverance and dedication, and giving up a lot of ''fun'' events for the sake of grades, they have obtained the honor of being the top of their class. These seniors are a fine example of the AHS motto: Always High Standards. We're all proud of you!

The spirited class of 1983 shined through their third rowdy year. They held various fund raisers such as Halloween gram sales, a spaghetti feed, carwashes, a Christmas bake sale, a candy cane sale, and their Junior Prom which was held at the Claremont Hotel featuring the band Laser Boy. "The Juniors Remember When" was the theme for spirit week as they decorated the halls and yelled at the rallies. They let their presence be known as they proved to all that they had .... Sophomores Touchdown To A Great Year

Front: President, Maureen Stanley; Vice President, Alice Arenas; Secretary, Jane Curliano; Treasurer, Andrew Renema. Back: Ad Board, Norma Galvan, Liz Garcia, Joanne Trenkle; Spirit Leader, Rachel Borge.

Soph's Go Physical!

Sophomore presidents Maureen Stanley and Sonja Yates led the class of '84 through a successful year at AHS. While fund-raising with a car wash and a bake sale, the sophomores also made magic happen with their Soph-Hop, "Midnight Magic", attracting hundreds of students from each class. Kicking off the year, the sophomores placed second in a Spirit Week, scoring a touchdown in pride for their class.

1. Vice President: Maureen Stanley
2. Spirit Leader: Shannon O'Donnell
3. Treasurer: Nichole Mihara; Secretary: Jane Curliano

Freshman Frolic In The South Pacific!

THE FALL FRESHMAN CLASS OFFICERS ARE: (seated) Tina Fink, Treasurer; Tiffany Markey, Secretary; Tracy Valentine, Vice President; Patricia Parker, President; (standing) Ad Board: Holly McBride, Ron Cody, Loretta Clark (Spirit Leader), Tiffany Andrews, and Kathy Hanson.

CLIMBING OUR WAY TO THE TOP.

The Freshman Class finally made it through their first year at A.H.S.! They took off to a great start by winning $100 for buying the most Study Body cards; thanks to the great leadership of fall class president, Patricia Parker. The Freshman class then got together some fund raisers; such as a bake sale, and a car wash that were rescheduled until spring. During the celebration of fall spirit week, the freshman went South Pacific, tieing for last place. At the semester, Tracey Valentine took over as class president organizing with Vicki Quintell, and Loretta Clark a bake sale which made $92.00! In addition, an international dinner was planned for April, and possibly a trashathon, also. The Freshman class celebrated spring spirit week by going rodeo.

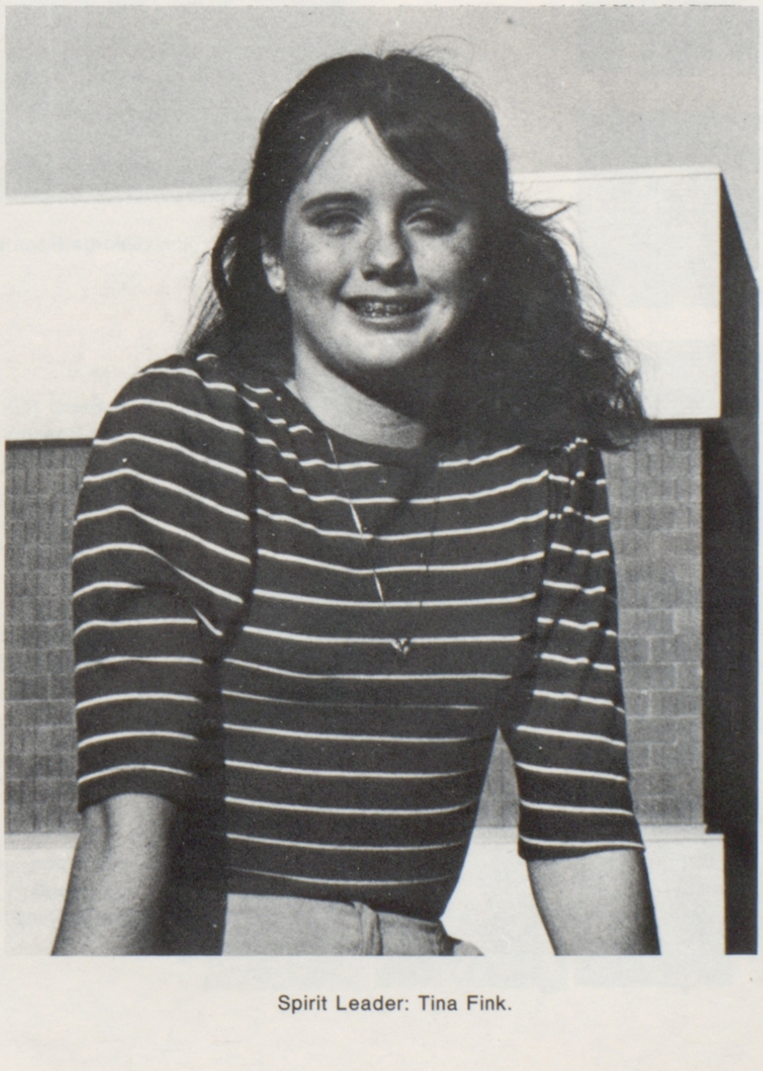
Treasurer: Vicki Quientell, Vice President; Loretta Clark, and Secretary; Patricia Parker.



Spirit Leader: Tina Fink.

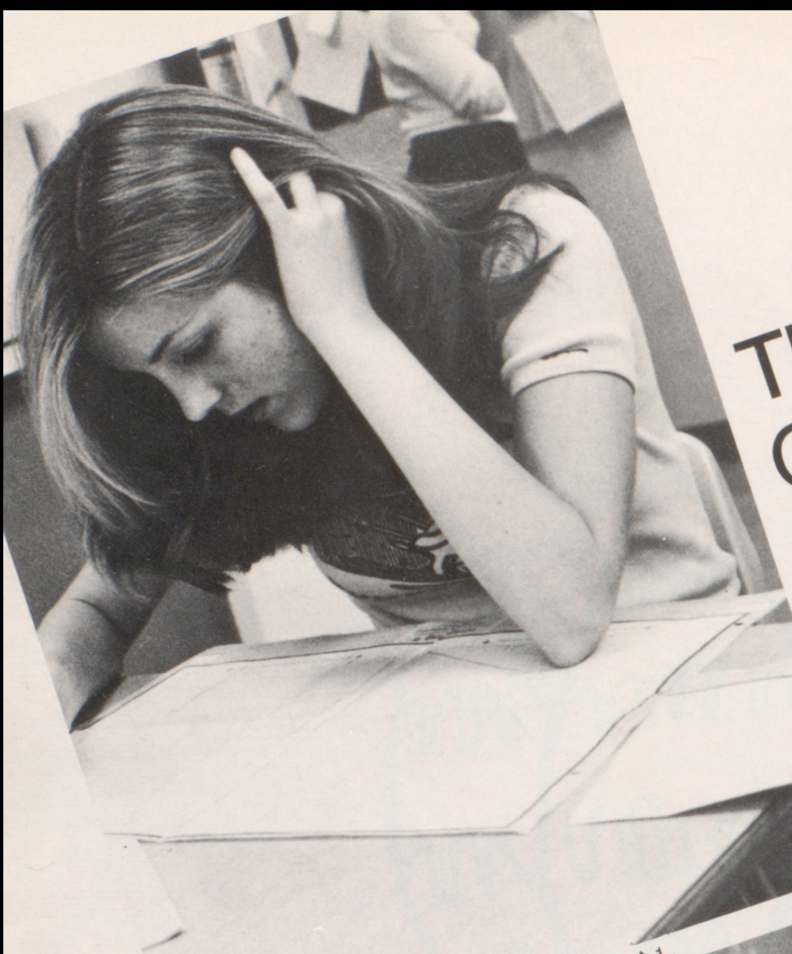
THE ACORN STAFF GOES NUTS!!



▲1

▲2

The 1981-82 ACORN Staff, though mainly new to yearbooking, overcame the many obstacles of producing a yearbook that clearly represents Alameda High School students. Through dedication and hard work they learned how to draw layout, write copy, crop pictures, and meet deadlines. Advisor, Mrs. Johanna Winzenread, and Editors, Brad Paul and Heidi Benson, lent strong leadership as the Staff strived to promote spirit, and get AHS Students to "Catch the Buzz." Using more color pictures than ever before and applying new techniques, this years ACORN will surely be the BEST EVER.

1. An exciting yearbook staff picutre. 2. Another exciting yearbook staff picutre. 3. "This really stinks!" 4. The winner of the exciting yearbook staff picture contest. 5. ASIAN CLUB

We are very proud of the Asian Club this year and had a very active year with support from our sponsors, Mr. Dare, Mrs. Seto, and Mr. Fairfield. Enthusiasm of the membership was displayed during the snow trip to Northstar, Christmas caroling, the Bake Sale, Car Washes, Paper Drives, picnics, and gym nights with Asian Clubs from other high schools. Besides promoting friendship among Asian-Americans, the club invites students of all ethnic backgrounds that are interested in learning and enriching their understanding of Asian culture and to help students who have just arrived in the United States feel comfortable.

FRENCH CLUB

This past year, the French Club has grown tremendously in size. Some of the activities of the club were a bake sale, a trip to the Rougenoir cheese factory, the Valentine's Day flower sale, and a trip to a french restaurant. All in all we've had a very successful year with the fun participation of all the members.

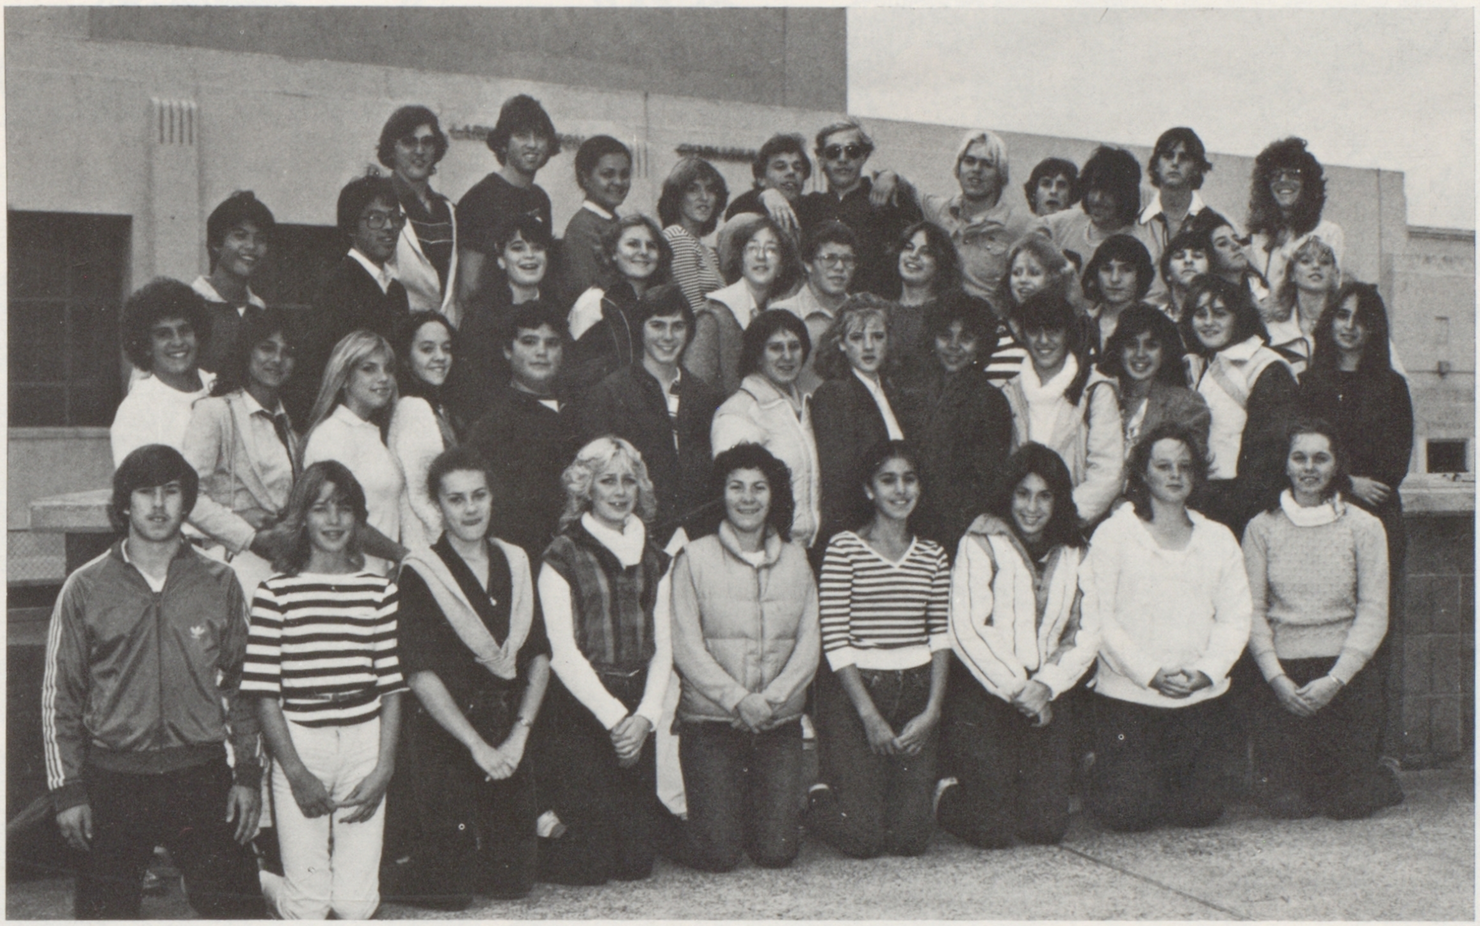
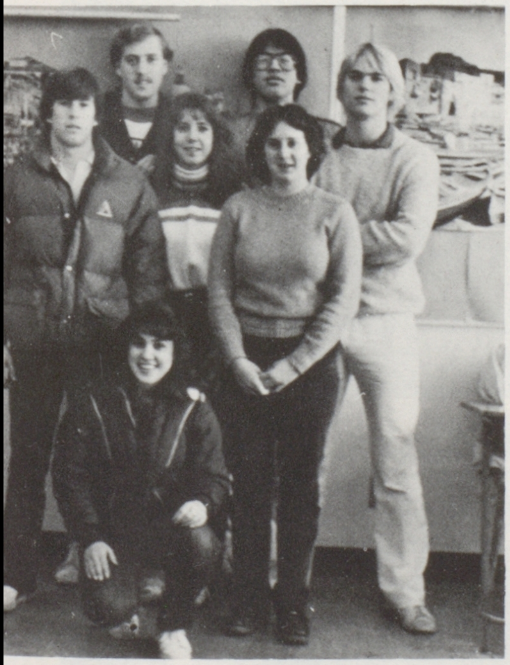
IL CIRCOLO ITALIANO





Led by their advisor, Ms. Rose Sartori, the Italian Club members enjoyed an eventful year. Beginning with a field trip to the Columbus Day Parade in San Francisco, many members agreed that the Italian culture is an important part of America today.

President Mark Sato along with his Vice-president, Rich Bullock, planned many exciting ventures for the club. Some of those being sightseeing along Fisherman's Wharf ending with lunch at an Italian Northbeach Restaurant, the purchase of Il Circolo d'Italiano T-shirts, and of course, the serenading of those lucky students who heard the fantastic voices coming from old Room 719!

CALIFORNIA SCHOLARSHIP FEDERATION

Those studious C.S.F. members started the school year off right by having a picnic at Leydecker Park! After that, though, it was only serious business for them. Throughout the whole year each member was kept off the streets, tutoring Alameda High School students. In November the club, and advisor, Mr. Brooks, made a trip to the University of California at Berkeley. There they saw what college life was really like by sitting in actual classes, touring the campus, and roaming Telegraph Avenue. To raise money for a trip by bus to another university (maybe Harvard or Princeton), the club anxiously sold World's Finest Chocolate and baked goods for the school play. Summing it all up, the club had a terrific and busy year and accomplished quite a bit.

Video Club

Do you see too much smut and garbage on television today? The members of the Video Club are trying to solve it by attempting to reverse the downward trend of television by producing quality amateur programs.

One of the regular programs is the Video Oakleaf which is produced by Kathleen Trenkle, edited and directed by Francis (Fred) Lewis, and staffed by members of the club. The show features current student activities and interviews with members of the student body.

The Video Club has taped productions from Shakespeare to special speakers who visit our school. The club entered the Statewide Media Contest with some rather creative and interesting ideas and techniques.

It is the goal of the club that all members be more acquainted with not only the tools of this electonic medium, but also the techniques in productions where their creativity may be shown to the fullest extent. Another goal is that everyone would watch and contribute to the Video Oakleaf in the years to come and make it into an Alameda High School tradition.

The Cast of the Video Club: (Back) Brian Walker, Lawrence Pon, Reynaldo Cruz (either not paying attention or he dropped his lunch), Francis H. Lewis III (goofing off), (middle) Tina Sams, John Eggert, Alexander Cheung, Kathy Trenkle, Franz Weberg, Luis Herdnandez, Rich Paul, (front) Rob Bonstin, Mario Hernandez, Tom Hudson, and Brian Lantz. Auto Club

Auto Club meetings were held every Tuesday. The purpose of the club is to give members an opportunity to work on their own cars under the guidence of Mr. Thomas Munro and Mr. Don Howell, who also furnished all necessary tools and equipment.

A gasoline raffle was held in April to raise funds for a trip to the Malibu Grand Prix Raceway.

All members are required to have had at least one year of Auto Shop, and the dues are $1.00 per month. Officers this year were: Richard Schacht, President; Douglas Blaisdell, Vice President; and Ken Negron, Secretary-Treasurer.

SNOWBLIND

The 1981-82 Ski Club was a big success this year. Many new members, as well as regular ones, joined to be included in the ski trips. Everyone joined together in raising money by having a candy sale which raised a lot of money for each individual. The skiing conditions were excellent, especially on the trips to Heavenly and Sugar Bowl. Everyone thanks the Sponsors Mrs. Watson, Mrs. Waldear, and Mr. Rateaver for all their help and understanding. Led by Ms. Coates the Film Club has gotten off to a great start as a new club this year. Every two weeks the club attends the theater together and the following Monday the club analyzes and discusses the film which was viewed. The films in which the club has seen include the "French Lieutenants Woman," "True Confessions," "Time Bandits," and "Reds." The movies which are viewed are voted upon by the club members but the trips to the movies are open to everyone. They have had some fundraisers such as a bake sale to defray the high cost of movies.

AMERICAN OPINION
ONE FOR ALL!

John Henderson thinks he's right by reading a right magazine as he does his Buckley imitation.

This is the Chess Club and Chess Team! Almost everyday during lunch in room 247 the members of the Chess Club and Team can be seen tuning their strategical and tactical skills as Captain Rick Veres plans for a coming match.

Unlike other clubs, the Chess Club did not hold any functions or organize the usual fund raisers, but utilized the funds available from major United States corporations. The members do not think the club is going to get rich from it though.

The Varsity Chess Team had a winning season in the Alameda County Chess League (A.C.C.L.) with each member receiving a Block A Letter, but the team was disappointed that they did not receive as much attention as the other varsity sports.

Rich Schacht thinks that chess is a headbone sport.

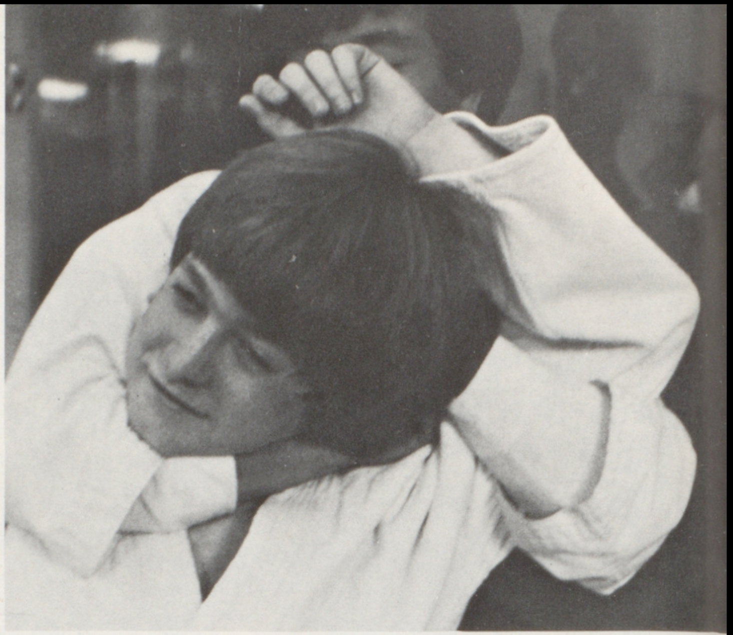
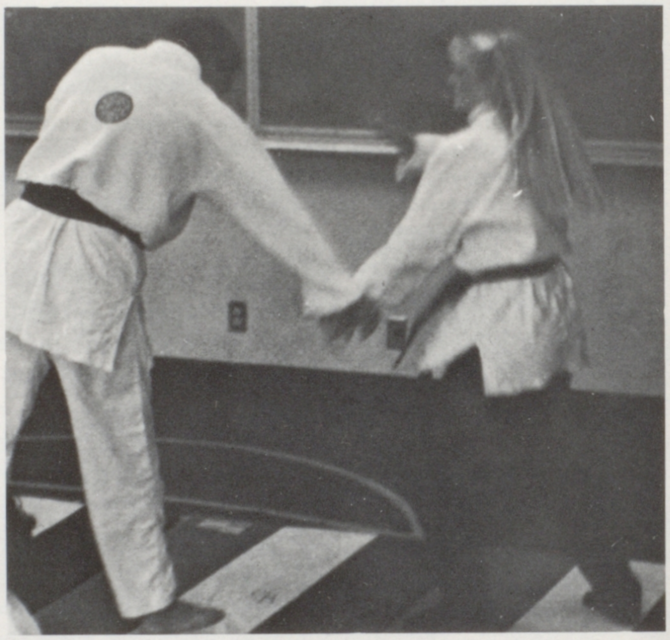
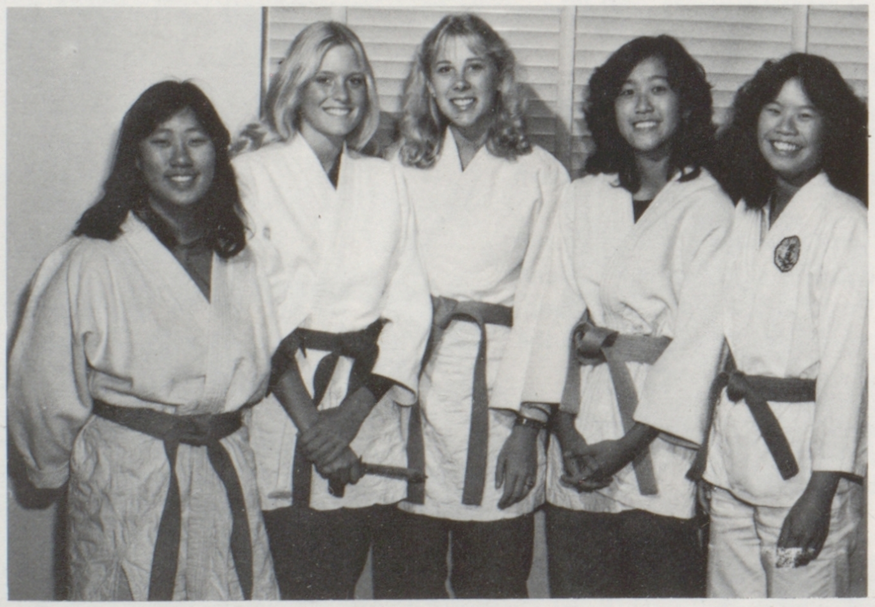
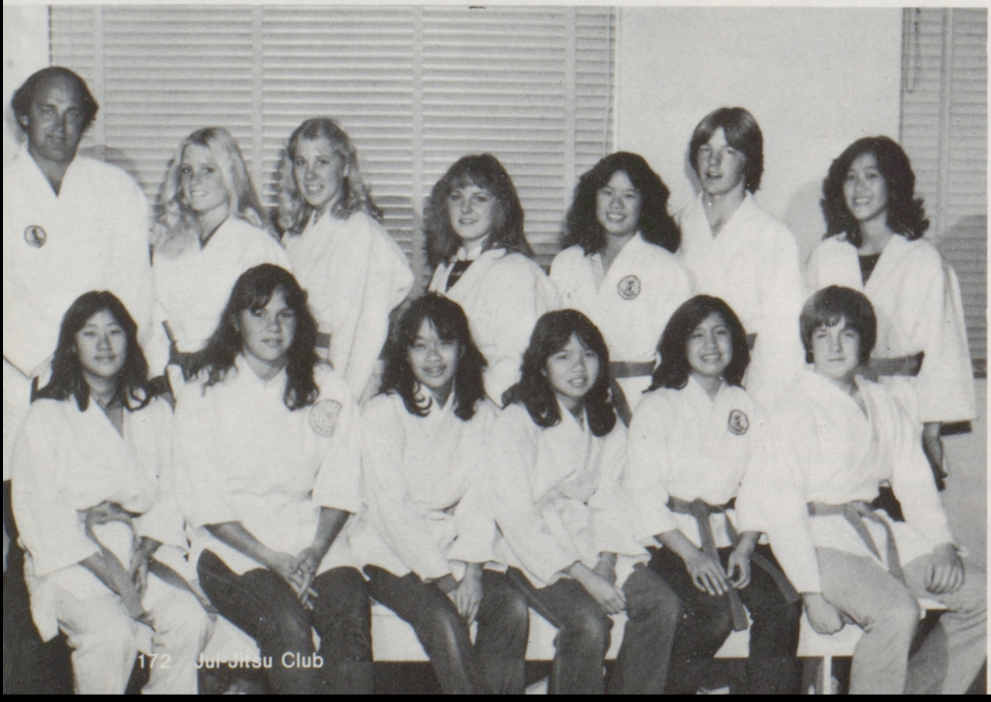
JUI-JITSU CLUB









The Jui-Jitsu Club at Alameda High meets everyday during 3rd period. There they train to get promoted to higher belts. Alameda High School is the only public high school in the United States where students are able to receive belt promotions. The AHS Jui-Jitsu Club gives demonstrations for schools, clubs, and organizations. This year they are going to Hawaii to give a demonstration for Wally Jay's birthday. They have had fund-raisers such as a car wash, a dance, and participated in the Christmas Faire at EHS to defray the cost of the trip.

KEYWANETTES

Under the leadership of President Diane Morris and her fellow officers, the Keywanettes increased their membership over 100% this year. The object of Keywanettes is to serve both the community and school, and to provide an opportunity for leadership in service.

The Keywanettes obtained a proclamation from Mayor Chuck Corica declaring Dec. 6-12th as Keywanette Week. In order to serve the community, the girls had a canned food drive, litter pick-ups and they visited with disabled children.

The highlights of their meetings were when they had proffesionals from the Kiwanis Club come speak to them about their occupations.

In addition to service, the Keywanettes believe in having fun. The highlight of the year was travelling to Anaheim for the annual Keywanette convention. They were able to meet fellow Keywanettes from all over California, Nevada, and Hawaii. A day spent at Disneyland was well worth the long trip.

"Build a Better Tomorrow, Today" was the district theme this year. The Keywanettes shall continue to do this through both service and Friendship.

Kounteract is a service club that was a big success this year. They donated their time in many different ways. They helped dress models for the St. Mary's Church fashion show at Golden Gate Fields. They also ran a booth at the 6th Annual Christmas Faire held at Encinal High School on Dec. 5, 1981. Kounteract organized various fund raisers, including a bake sale. President Connie Bryant did a great job keeping the club busy and organized. Vice-President Raeann Esparza helped the president, which added to their success. Secretary Chris Healy and Treasurer Tracy Lomba kept everything in order socially as well as financially. But without the help and advice of their sponsor, Mrs. Tillotson, they could not have been as successful.

Foreign Exchange Students

We, at Alameda High, have been honored this past year by having a diversed and energetic group of international young people representing almost every continent on the globe. Four exchange students and twelve others joined our still growing international world a AHS for a total of 46 foreign students from 6 different continents. For many, including Seniors, it was a first year of survival in our totally English world. Not an easy task. They entered into our athletics program and some academically achieved honor roll status.

Others learned to speak and write English sentences. We congratulate them all on their success here at AHS and hope that among them, some will be able to host an Alameda student in future years.

The 1981-82 Interact Club has been one of the most successful service clubs this year. They co-sponsored a dance that was a flying success. During their Vandalism Prevention Week, they spent time to help and keep the school neat and tidy. They also supported AHS's blood drive by donating a lot of the schools blood supply.

President Tim Goodman did an excellent job keeping the club organized and on top of all the activities. Vice President Rick Young aided in the clubs success by helping the president and by organizing the delivery of meals on wheels. Secretary-Treasurer Joe Perri kept the meetings in line by taking minutes and giving weekly financial reports. The club was sponsored by Gene Evans.

ALAMEDA COFFEE & TEA MERCHANT

Alameda Coffee and Tea Merchant is continuing its second year of business in the island city.

Entrepeneur Peggy Moore-Williams brought this innovative business together. However, without the help of her extremely dedicated workers, Ms. Cecilia Moore and Ms. Jeannine Lynch this establishment would not have flourished as it did. Mrs. Williams is proud of her employees as well as the success of the business.

A.C.T.M. features fresh roasted coffee beans, bulk teas, coffee accessories, coffee and tea drinks, including expresso, cappucino, cafe au laits and hot chocolate. The many specialty items vary from beans to exotic teas, jellies to exotic mustards and from employers to exotic employees.

Good luck class of 1982, with extreme congratulations to Jeannine and Cecilia!

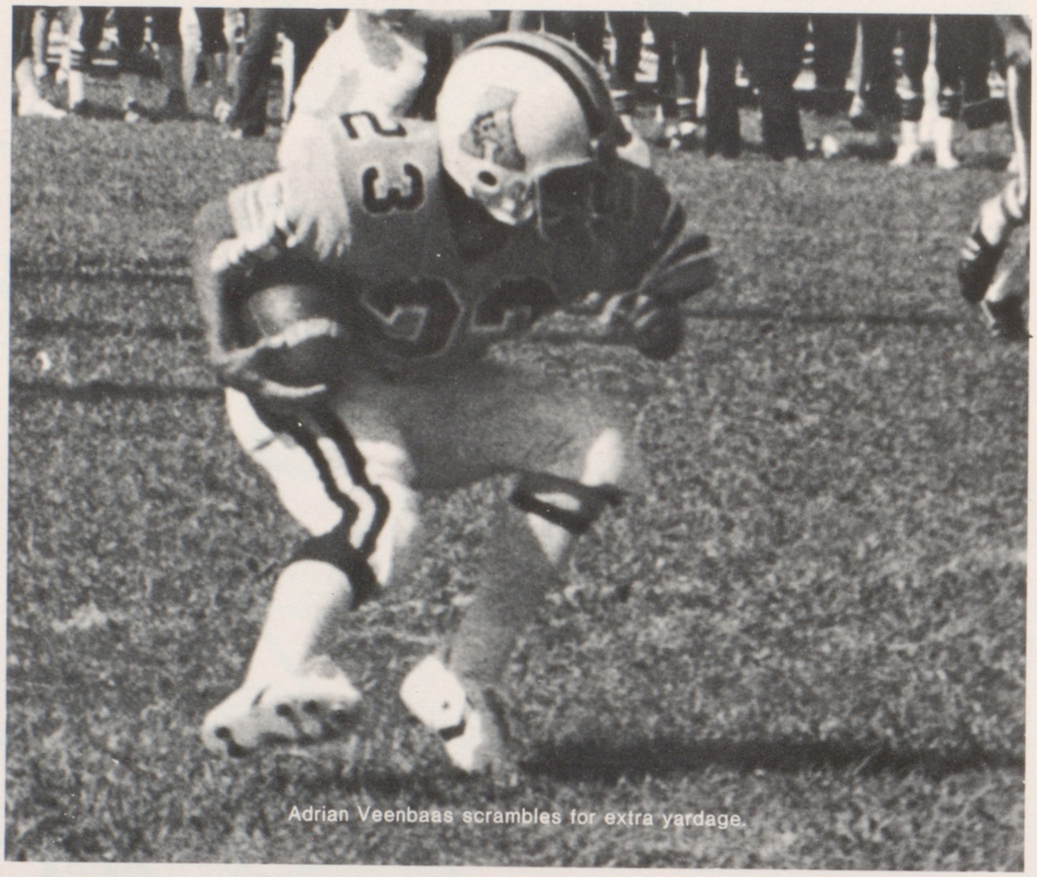
HORNETS GET WIRED!!!!



Adrian Veenbaas scrambles for extra yardage.

The AHS Varsity Football team took second in ACAL with a 4 Win, 2 Loss record. The season was highlighted by an inspiring Victory over the Encinal Jets in the Mud Bowl, on November 13, by a score of 7-0, knocking the Jets out of title contention.

The offense was led by quarterback Dave Faria who finished third in passing in the ACAL. The workhorses were running back Mike Kelly, and our man behind the man, Ricky Young. Both were in the top ten rushing.

The top receiver was Adrian Veenbaas who hauled down a Hornet all-time record of 37 receptions. Giving Faria time to throw were linemen Tim Hartman, Mike Hawley, Mike Brannan, Jason Curliano, and Greg Koubek.

The Wolfpack defense was led by tackles John "Wolf" Randolph, and Mike Robertson, which left outstanding linebackers, led by leading tackle Rick Young, along with Steve Floyd, Dan Green, and Mike Kelly, to prey on the opposing running backs.

Rich Warnick led the team in quarterback sack's with 8, and the always tough Hornet secondary was led by All-League safety Adrian Veenbaas. Safeties, Curt Leavitt, and John Garcia, cornerbacks Eugene Corpuz, and Joe Abasolo, also acquired All-League honors, making the 1981 Varsity Hornet Football team one of the best ever!!

The Junior Varsity Football team fought hard and struggled all year, compiling a 2 and 8 record for the season. The J.V.'s had many bright spots, including the passing combination of Denny Bilikas to wide receiver Jim Merrick, and the deceptive running of John Garcia. The defense was led by linebackers Mike Randolph and Robert Ross, and hard hitting cornerback, Triny Archuleta.

The 1981 Frosh/Soph. Football team posted a 3-5-1 record this season, showing good sportsmanship and the urge to play ball.

The defense was led by defensive tackle Taylan Plasch, defensive back David Rae, middle linebacker Mike Morris, and inside linebacker Kevin Cook. Playing tough, the defense, forced the opponents to pass.

The offense for the team stood out as fullback Kevin Cook and fullback Mike Morris both accumulated more than 100 yds. each.

All in all, it was a great season, and they are looking forward to next year.

The 1981 edition of the Boys Cross Country team proved unpredictably good and bad. In their first league meet they lost for the first time in two years. The team then bounced back to earn a tie for the ACAL dual meet championship. The best race of the year was at the North Coast section 2A meet at Garin Park in Hayward. The Hornet harriers finished in the top eight out of sixteen teams. The Future looks good for the Hornets as only seniors, Troy Finger, Hank Sigmon, Morty Howard and David Wiley will be leaving.

Troy and Hank were voted team captains by their peers as Troy also captured the Most Valuable Runner award. The most improved award went to Doug Young, and David Wiley was voted the most inspirational.

"The best girls

1

Although stricken by many injuries, the united girls Cross Country team survived the grueling workouts of coach Tim Bruder, to the completion of another exciting and rewarding fall running season. This year the Varsity girls race was extended from two miles to three. For many returning runners it was a difficult transition into a new pace, but in the long run it gave us all just another mile to show our strength.

We finished second to powerful Piedmont in the ACAL dual meet championship, Oakland Invitational and the San Ramon Invite. In the North Coast Secton 2A meet, the team finished seventh.

Returning for their third year, seniors Julie Deady, Judy Boshoven, Cathi Gilmore, and Michelle Mebine, finished a strong season, yet the strength remains with the underclassmen, Ann Ratto, Dawn Thomas, Cindy Cane, and Mary Roberts. The girls unanimously chose Ann Ratto as Most Valuable Player along with being chosen team captain with Mary Roberts. Freshman Dawn Thomas garnered the most improved award and Judy Boshoven was voted most inspirational, and received the Jack Clark Award.

The season is best summarized by coach Tim: "The 1981 girls varsity finished out the campaign as the best girls team ever at Alameda High."

Volleyball

The AHS Girls Varsity Volleyball Team experienced their best season since 1977. Under the coaching of Mary Wynne, they accomplished many new goals such as defending ACAL champs, Piedmont in two games. Along being co-captain Jeanette Vacca, Gayle Matsura was the star varsity player as she was All League and captured the Mud award. Lori Cheung won the most improved player award, Jeanette Vacca, most inspirational, and sophomore, Marie Wales, won the sportsmanship award. Next year should be an even more promising year for the young varsity team.

The J.V. Volleyball team led by co-captains Kelle Brooks and Ingrid Siebert had an excellent year placing third with 8-4 in the ACAL. Most valuable player was the setter, Ingrid Siebert. Kelle Brooks won most inspirational, Kathy Rich, the sportmanship award, and Freshman Holly McBride took the most improved player award.

The Alameda High School Girls' Swim Team victoriously swam in the Alameda County Athletic League. Under the leadership of Coach Mary Curry, the swimmers competed in various meets and did well in the North Coast Championships.

This year's team consisted of many new swimmers replacing the seniors that graduated last year. Returning Block A winners include: Senior SuAnn Lee; Juniors Cindy Allen, Debbie Cummings, Crissy Grace, Patty Tormey, and Joanne Wong; and Sophomores Kelle Brooks, Julie Lee, Dolores Perata, Paula Pirack, and Anita Wong.

Divers Susan Bordeaux and Tiffany Markey showed grace and percision as they helped to make the season successful.

The 1982 Men's Swim Team

The 1982 Men's Swim Team looks to be very promising. Last year the team won the R.B.A.L., but this year was moved back to the A.C.A.L. The Hornets are heavily favored to win the varsity A.C.A.L. Championships and the J.V.'s also have a good chance at first place.

The 1982 team lost only four seniors, but they were in key events. The Team's weakest point seems to be the Backstroke, even though Sophomore Mike Rossi is back.

Returning Senior lettermen John Perata, Roman Amaguin, Brad Bolton, and Danny Garvin should form a solid foundation for the 1982 team. A great asset to the team are Senior transfer students John Murphy and Attila Tivadar. John will be a major factor in the Breastroke and Attila should provide a lot of speed in the shorter Freestyle events.

Also returning to the 1982 line-up is Senior Mark Canepa who broke the school record last year in the 500 yard Freestyle and plans to rebreak the record. Other records in jeopardy are the 200 Freestyle, 100 Backstroke, and the 200 I.M.

Diver Robert Robbins along with some newcomers to diving is expected to have an excellent season.

1. Senior Roman Amaguin sprints to a victorious finish.
2. Senior John Perata powerfully strokes to victory.
3. John Murphy makes Breastroke look easy.
4. Diver Robert Robbins with another perfect entry.
5. Senior Mark Canepa is on his way to another school record.

Ron DiFabio and Mark Sato show great enthusiasm toward the Hornets performance.

A review of the 1981-82 season revealed that the Alameda Hornets indeed were an improved team. Under direction of new Coach Felix Douglas, the Hornets complied a 12-9 record overall, while turning in an 8-4 league performance, third place, and a berth in the playoffs.

Coach Douglas was fortunate to have some returning players that he was able to build into a cohesive squad. Players such as Senior Co-Captain Richard Bullock lead the attack in scoring, while Paul Merrigan, Jeff Taner, and Junior Brian Placourakis crashed the boards. Steady backcourt performance from Mark Sato and David Freitas controlled the Hornet's floor attack. The reserves Morris Gustin, Ron DiFabio, James McGee, and Steve Chrissanthos played key roles in helping maintain a balanced attack against the opposition with their ball hounding defensive tactics.

The future of the Hornets looks good for the 1982-83 season as Coach Douglas sees that the Hornets will definitely be a team of the future.

The Junior Varsity Hornets rolled to a successful season this year ending up with 7-5 league outcome, and 13-8 overall. Leading Alameda's fastbreaking style offense were sophomores Mike Bullock, Pat Johnson and Dean Sato. Juniors Steve Chrisanthos, Eric Bowers, John Cross and Tom Houghton switched off in the pivot position. Hampered with a few injuries such as sprained ankles to Dean Sato and Pat Johnson, the Hornets did their jobs as forwards Mike Bullock and Pat Johnson hit from the perimeter with Tom Houghton, Eric Bowers and John Cross battling underneath for rebounds and inside shots. Coming off the bench well for Rick Lynch's dynasty were Louie Manzo, guards James Nodora and Ron Fariss, and the outside shooting of Damon Martinez. The young Hornets are in for a strong season next year, with a lot of talent and experience.

This year's Alameda High School frosh team showed a great deal of promise during their first season of prep action. Controlling the ball on the fastbreak, and making good moves to the inside was leading scorer, guard Marcus Hill. Along with Marcus in the backcourt were Don Rich and Wayland Gee, who missed several games with a badly sprained ankle. On the inside attack, Scott Bailles took control of the near basket moves, as we;l as grabbing rebounds on both sides of the court. Also going up strong for the defensive boards was forward Sean Lutzi. A late comer to the squad was Paris Wheeler, an accurate shooting forward who had good moves to the hoop from all spots on the court. Called on from the bench to do his job was Bernard Villafior who kept the pace up and the offense flaring. With good depth in the team, ranging from quick alert guards to tall well moving forwards, the frosh team should add lots to the J.V. Team next year.

Girls Earn Unexpected Success

The Girls Varsity Basketball team was coached by Steve Cressy, who successfully lead the team to the ACAL Playoffs for the first time. Senior Players, Chris Healy, Gerverne Shirley and Kim Hugger, controlled the boards for the hornets. Trini Sanchez, sophomore, leading scorer and an all around spark plug for the Hornets was an all league selection along with Teri Rolleri. Teri Rolleri showed alot of defensive hustle which helped lead the hornets to victory. Two Freshman also contributed to the varsity team, Christine Fairless and Nancy Roach. Other members who spot lighted the team were Heidi Hugger, Sonja Yates, Diane Valencia and Marie Wales. The J.V. girls were coached by Mary Win who worked hard to improve the team. Theresa Cosmo and Mary Roberts spot lighted the team in both offensive and defensive plays.

This year's Boys' Varsity Track Team proved impressive. George Hashimito, Eugene Corpuz, and Mike Kelly returned for their final year to clock some of their fastest times. Also, returning from last year, Juniors Terri Brown, Scott Bellefuile, and Kevin Cubillas proved valuable for the team.

The 1982 J.V. tracksters proved very promising. George Baca, Bernie Krause, and Doug Young are just a few of the fresh new faces of the mighty A.H.S. tracksters who seem like good prospects for the future.

GIRL TRACKSTERS TAKE THE LEAD

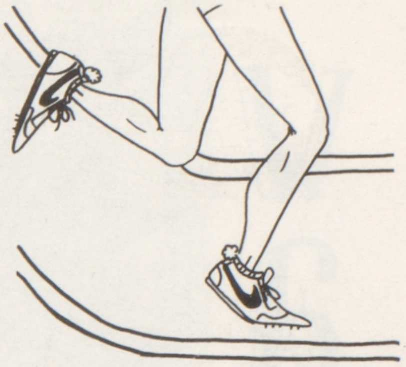
5



"THE GIRLS HAVE NEVER RUN HARDER WORKOUTS . . . " one of the seniors on the girls track team was quoted. But due to those grueling practices the 1982 girls track team developed speed, strength and a potential for victory.

There were many girls returning from previous years of AHS track but a few were faced with new races, such as juniors Ann Ratto and Kathy Koo.

Returning seniors in the field events were: Jo Worley, with an outstanding season in shot and discus; Chris Healy, who has unlimited abilitites running, jumping and hurdling. Jumping higher than ever were Judy Boshoven and Cathi Gilmore.

In the long distance races seniors Judy Boshoven, Linda Crone and Julie Deady came back to improve their times for their final year of Alameda Track. Juniors Ann Ratto and Cindy Cane, and freshman, Dawn Thomas, were valuable for this year's team and will keep AHS girls track running strong in the future.

This year's sprinters, concentrating heavily on form and technique, clocked considerably fast times. Junior Debbie Alexander was a lone veteran among a pack of new sprinters. Hard work and determination prevailed this year. " . . . BUT WE KNOW IT ALL PAID OFF," the senior concluded.

1. No JoJo, you only have to throw the disc not another duscus thrower.

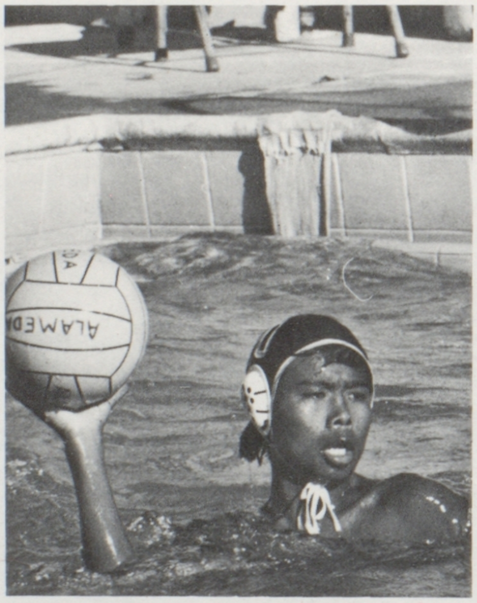
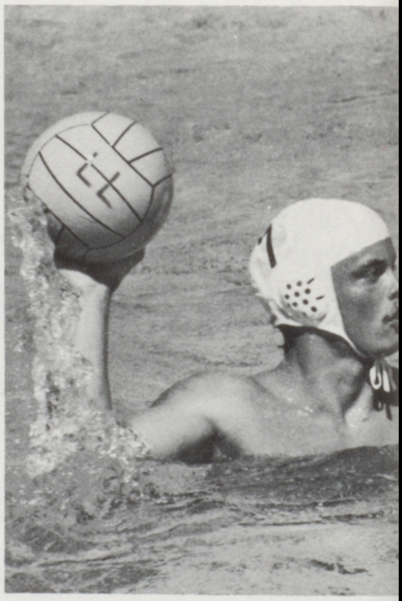
Water Polo

Water Polo players get intense with some inspirational words from coach Rodd.



Roman Amaguin: Second year All-League.

Paul Hamalian gets set to block the shot.



John Perata makes an accurate pass in the Los Lomas tournament.

The 1981 Water Polo Team enjoyed its best season in the history of the school, dating back to 1965. Under the coaching of Robert Rodd, they compiled a win-loss record of 15-5, a 3rd place finish in the R.B.A.L., and a 7th place finish at the North Coast Post Season Water Polo Tournament. The team strengths lied in its seniors and the depth of its roster.

Three seniors were gracefully mentioned at the Post Season-Tourney (otherwise known as North Coast): Roman Amaguin was selected as 2nd team All-Tourney; Paul Hamalian, in the cage, was selected for the second year in the row as 2nd team All-Tourney; John Perata was tabbed as All-Tourney Honorable Mention. All three of these seniors were selected as All-Leaguers—Roman Amaguin for the second year with the addition of senior Mark Canepa.

Other individuals singled out by Robert Rodd were seniors Danny Garvin, second leading scorer for the Hornets; Brad Bolton, winner of the Coach's Award; Tom Houghton was tabbed as the most improved junior; Mike Rossi, the most improved sophomore; and Kevin Flock, the most improved freshman.

The J.V.'s concluded a fantastic season, the best in the school's history, with a record of 8-2.

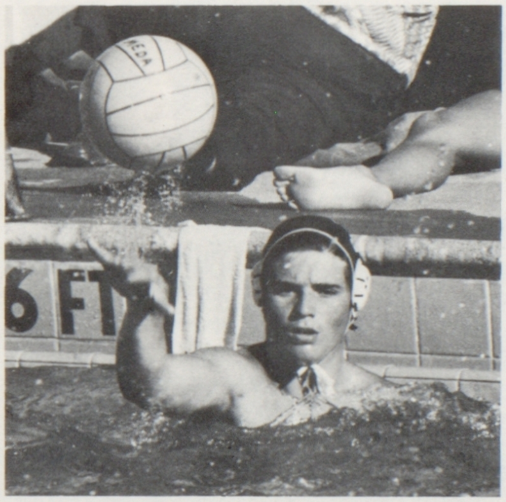
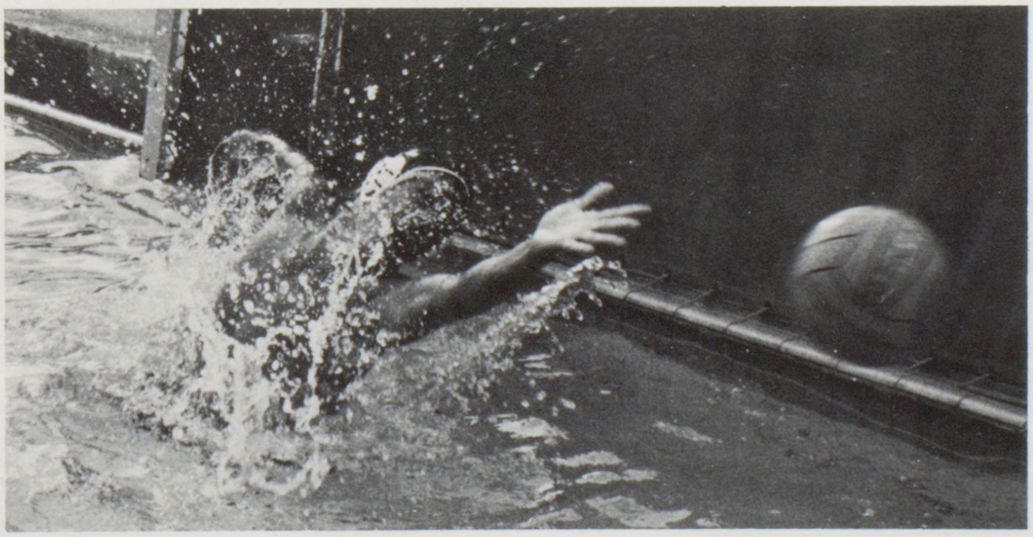
Junior John Simpson prepares to make a wet shot.



For Tom Houghton, it's just a flick of the wrist.



Rob McGlashen, J.V. goalie, can't quite reach this one.

Consider the different styles of soccer played in Asia, Latin America, Europe, Australia and the United States and you have this year's varsity soccer team. Hornet soccer was played on Thompson Field for the first time this year with just such diversity of background and experience.

Junior Graham Ritchie, whose brother plays professional soccer in Scotland, was goalie. Russell Hay, who hails from Australia, played agressive defense and was chosen to serve as team captain. Senior Vincent Tso showed maturity and good team work as a mid-fielder. The player with most of the talent and versatility was Jose Muñoz, who scored most of the goals during the early season. Coach Siebert tried to play as many players as possible, however, underutilized several real talents on the roster. Noteworthy were Peter Kim, David Kriwinski, and Greg Price. The player showing the best skills and technical comprehension was Walter Salazar, from Peru.

1. Danny charges in swift pursuit of the ball.
2. Vincent exhibits his skill in controlling the ball.

THE FIRST YEAR OF IT "ALL" . . . GIRLS SOCCER.

Being the first year for the girls soccer team at Alameda High School, it was a season of a lot of learning and innocent play. Not only was it the girl's first year, but my first year as a coach. I had some great athletes to work with throughout the course of theyear. As the season started we played teams that had been playing soccer for five to six years. We took our bruises but learned from them too!

In our first encounter with our rival, the Jets, we lost our team leader, Eleanor Bonifacio, with a knee injury, (we love you Eleanor). But the season went on . . .

With our lack of experience we became a more defensive team; people leading in that area were Carolyn Jauco, as goalie, Joanne Trenkle and Nichole Mihara. On offense, when we had the ball, Joy Pasley used the "fast brake", and was followed up by Ann Ratto, Judy Boshoven and Kathy Kelly to make our shots count.

All in all the year was not a failure. We all learned how to pull the fight from inside of us and give the other team a touch game. I want to thank all the girls, and coaches who helped to make my first soccer season one to remember. Love you all, Greg Flenory. "FLEA"

The A.H.S. Girls Tennis Team completed a successful season with a 14-4 record. Leading the Hornets were Gertrude Rosette and Susan Bordeaux. Kim Pauline played #3 singles and freshman Wendy Orear held down the #4 singles position. Kaeti Fairfield and Sally Capon, both sophomores, played #1 doubles. Kelly Doan, Christine Fairless, and Camille Samonte rotated at #2 doubles, and sophomores Sonja Yates and Linda Wanzyk were undefeated at #3 doubles. Alameda finished the season by playing on the new A.H.S. Tennis Courts and defeating previously undefeated Encinal High School by a score of 6-1. Coach Fairfield is looking forward to the next season as only two seniors will be leaving from the squad. The Varsity Baseball Team was off to a slow start as the 1982 baseball season began. With ten returning lettermen, the team shaped up quickly as the season progressed.

Under the coaching staff of Don Murray and Steve Yamasaki, the team was much improved from last year.

Assets to the team's victories were: Wayne Copple, Dave Freitas, Tim Hartman, Adrian Veenbaas, Rich Warnick and Ron DiFabio. Fresh Talent up from the J.V.'s were: Chris Targett, David Barbis, Mike Robertson, and Joe Santos. One Freshman, David Targett, made the 1982 varsity baseball team, doing a great job and holding his own.

Returning to the varsity baseball team after a year's absence was senior Rich Bullock. Rich made honorable mention his sophomore year and did a great job this year on the team.

The strength of the team was the infield which was made up of all returning lettermen. They were: Senior catcher Tim Hartman; junior, first baseman, Wayne Copple; senior, second baseman, Dave Freitas; senior third baseman Ron DiFabio; and senior shortstop Adrian Veenbaas.

The Varsity team will have a lot of returning pitchers and is expected to do very well next year!

This year there were some very lucky girls at A.H.S. They are the stat girls. These girls could be found at every sports match keeping track of all the points made by the individual players. Although being a stat girl is not easy, it can be very rewarding. These girls should be honored by all athletic participants; they gave up a lot of their free time to keep track of the points scored.

The stat girls for this year were; Track—Agnes Bonifacio, and Claudine Kim. Wrestling—Raeann Esparza. Basketball—Susan McPherson and Laurie Manzo. Swimming—Christine Hodder, Barbara Dredge and Susan McPherson. Baseball—Lynette Kenyon, Sandie LeClair and Deanna Haffey.

"Farewell, We'll Miss You."

▲ Leaving Alameda High School after 18 years will be difficult for Mrs. Elouise Graf. "I am sure I will miss going to school everyday," she says. She has taught reading and English for 29 years, 24 in California. She's enjoyed working with high school students and was involved in many activities such as; sponsoring Future Teachers, Calif. Scholarship Federation, J.V. Cheerleaders, and serving on the Faculty Council.

▲ Mr. Larry Regello, ending his 26 years of teaching career (15 at AHS) thinks of his most enjoyable thing he experienced; walking into the new T.V. Studio. Besides teaching English, art, psychology, and social studies, he was involved in Forensics, Photography, Video, and served as a Faculty Council Chairman. He feels through the years he's been here, students seem to be less self-disciplined now. "Maybe this is a matter of my age. I have become more conservative, less patient, and less tolerant," he added.

◀ "When I find out some of the students I had in class in the past now have good jobs or are in their own business, I would like to think I helped in some way while they were with me in school," says Mr. Don Howell ending his Alameda High School career after teaching 30 years. He has taught machine shop, wood shop, auto shop, and welding. Mr. Howell enjoyed his time spent here and highly respects the Alameda School District.
